

BALI&BEYOND JULY 2011

ON LOCATIONS

Bali Film Center (BFC) was in Los Angeles, California, for the AFCI Film Locations Trade Show from June 3-5. This is BFC's 8th year of introducing Indonesian locations at the world's largest film location event. Hosted by Walt Disney Studios and in association with Locations, BFC will also be attending "Produced By Conference" the premier film industry event with sessions to include Global Incentives, Marketing Your Location and featured speakers Academy Award-winning producer Harvey Weinstein, Producers Guild of America (PGA) President Hawk Koch and Academy Award-winning actor Morgan Freeman. Freeman narrated the recent IMAX 3D documentary Born to be Wild by David Lickley that features the orangutans of Indonesia's Kalimantan Island. Supported by Indonesia's Ministry of Culture & Tourism, BFC identifies and pursues potential movie and television projects for the country. Also from the BFC, the BALINALE 2011 will be held from October 10-16 this year.

Bali Film Center,
(0361) 744-4246 www.balifilm.com